COMMITTEE ABSENT: Shauna Grossman, Department of Health Services (DHS); Michael Rehberg, City of Oconto Police Chief; Hon. Jay Conley, designee for Hon. Michael T. Judge, Judge; Emily Miller, Oconto School District Superintendent; Hannah Schuchart, District Attorney;

OTHERS PRESENT: Erik Pritzl, County Administrator; Kim Pytleski, County Clerk; member of the public

1. Call to Order

Chair Schraven called the meeting to order at 12:15 p.m.

2. Approval of Agenda

Motion by Shackelford/Poverski to approve the agenda. The motion was voted on and carried.

3. Approval of Previous Meeting Minutes 04/24/2023

Motion by Shackelford/Poverski to approve the 04/24/2023 minutes. The motion was voted on and carried.

4. Communications

Pytleski informed the Council the bylaws were confirmed by the County Board on June 22, 2023.

5. Reports (No action to be taken)

5.1. CJCC Work Group Update

Work Group has not met. CJCC, Crime Prevention Fund Committee, and Court Security are working to coordinate meeting times.

5.2. Jail Administrator Update

5.2.1. Jail Population Report

Kopp gave the Council an update on jail numbers and inmates from other counties.

5.3. Youth Justice Report

5.3.1. Health & Human Services Update

Scott Shackelford, Health & Human Services Director, presented the HHS update regarding the number of youth under case management services, how many are in each program, and staff members that oversee the programs. Discussion followed.

Chris Hanke, Community Services Manager, shared that the average age of youth clients is 14 years old and provided an update on staffing patterns. Discussion followed.

5.3.2. School District Update – None.

6. Discuss Pretrial Diversion Programming

Group has not met. The past practice was deferred judgment agreements and identifying alternative penalties to jail time. Discussion followed.

7. Discuss Case Resolution Timeline

Discussion regarding average case timelines. The number of available public defenders and/or attorneys and the court calendars result in trial delays. Schraven will talk with DA Schuchart about possible solutions.

8. Programming

Discussed under items 6 and 7. Jail programming, Changing Courses (Changing Courses is not therapy or clinical), life and employment skills to help with reentry to society, and availability of State programming funds were discussed. Council discussed cost of Vivitrol being offered in the prison ($1200.00/shot). BadgerCare covers the cost of the shot, but if you are in custody you don't qualify for BadgerCare. Discussion followed.

9. Identify Future Agenda Items

- An update on numbers and programs given by HHS.
 - Overdose Fatality review team.
 - Child death review was conducted by the Sheriff's Office.
 - Suicide/Child/Overdose review team
 - Discussion of Narcan use in relation to the decrease in overdoses

10. Announcements/General Information (No action to be taken) – None.

11. Next Meeting Date

The next meeting will be October 23, 2023 at 12:00 p.m. Committee to revise the calendar going forward.

12. Adjournment

Meeting adjourned at 1:09 p.m.
